

THEME BASKET AUCTION

Proceeds to benefit District 1-A Convention

LIVE AUCTION to take place during the Second Plenary session on Saturday, March 31, 2012

Governor Wes Salsbury and the Convention Committee are asking all Lions Clubs to participate in the Theme Basket Auction. This will be the 12th year we are holding this fundraiser for the District. Each basket should have a value of no less than $50 in items and/or gift certificates and should be accompanied by a list that includes the name of the club, the items included, and the approximate value of the basket. Each club contributing a basket will be acknowledged and the list of items will be read to the bidders before the auction.

Theme baskets will be displayed during the Convention for everyone to see. An anonymous panel of judges will select winning theme baskets in the following categories:

Most Representative of the Convention Theme

Most Creative

Most Unique

A prize of $75 will be awarded to the winner of each category
