In 1925, Helen convinced Lions Clubs International to become "Knights of the Blind"
Please join us as we celebrate 100 years of service in her honor!

As an unreachable 7-year-old blind and deaf child, Helen was connected to the world by her teacher, Anne Sullivan. Helen earned a Bachelor of Arts degree and became an author, political activist, and lecturer.

Helen Keller biographer Dorothy Hermann refers to Annie as Helen's "other self."
